

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answering “ID” Questions – Example

Read the following example answer to an “ID” question. With a partner:

- Underline the sentences that identify the event, person or thing.
- Circle the 1-2 sentences that explain its importance at a particular time.

Question:

Identify and state the significance of the Klondike Gold Rush.

Answer:

In the early twentieth century, gold was discovered in an area called the Klondike along the Alaska/Yukon border. Men from all over Canada and the United States went to this area in search of their fortune. The Klondike Gold Rush is important in Canadian history because it is a good example of the prosperity Canada was experiencing at the turn of the century. It was also important because it made Canada famous around the world as a land full of riches.